TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

VOLUME III. BERKELEY, CAL., SATURDAY NOVEMBER 30, 1895. NUMBER 17

NOT FOR THE S. P. CO.

SO SAID MAYOR DAVIE OF OAKLAND

When He and a Force of Men Tore Down Railroad Fences to Open Harrison Street.

A Railroad Man's Mishap.

Luther Fillmore, division superintendent of the Southern Pacific Coast Railroad and who resides at the Crellin Hotel, Oakland, met with a painful accident Thanksgiving day.

The gentleman attempted to alight from a Washington-street car in front of his hotel when he slipped and fell to the pavement, striking heavily on his shoulder. He was carried into the Hotel and a physician summoned, who found that the gentleman had suffered from a dislocation of his shoulder. He will be confined to his room for some time.

Our Own Town.

The color of green is already beginning to be perceptible on the hills back of Berkeley and many of the pretty gardens, which are so ornamental to the town now begin to give evidences of new life. While the town is pretty all the year around it appears to its best advantage from the time the first rains come, until about four months later. Surveyed from a high standpoint, in a very short time the whole place will have the appearence of a large variegated carpet, with doll houses sprinkled over it as if miniature people were playing upon it. No one visiting here, can help being more than pleased with it. We hope to see thousands of people come among us and help enjoy all that we have been blessed with, particularly, in the shape of climate, good water, good sewerage, and beautiful scenery.

Social Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull of South Berkeley gave a most delightful social party at their residence on Russell street, Thanksgiving evening. The parlors were handsomely decorated with smilax and an assortment of hot-house flowers, the most numerous of which were huge white chrysanthemums and red and white roses. Refreshments were served through the evening.

The guests who were mostly young and gay enjoyed a most pleasant evening, amusing themselves by dancing, singing and in numerous other ways. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Hull, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fehd, Mrs. G. Moller, Mrs. J. Koughan, Miss M. Gaskins, Miss M. Fehd, Mr. F. Day, Mr. J. Hall, Mr. Shaw and others.

It Looks Queer.

The U. S. government has decided to become a prosecutor of the State of California Railroad Commission. It is a case where the Commission proposed to reduce freight rates. The government now says they must do nothing to take away the earnings of the railroad, as a portion of the money earned belongs to the United States. That is, the railroad company owes the government, and this is the only way it can get its money. On the same ground could not the government raise the rates?

Unique Novelty Furniture.

The largest furniture manufactory in California is that of E. Hook, of Oakland. Besides being a manufacturer he is also one of the largest importers in the State. He imports solely in order that a person visiting his mammoth stores can have their pick of any thing in the furniture line that is manufactured under the sun. It is gratifying, however, to state that the unique novelty furniture of his own manufacture is the most called for, and it now graces the homes of people in every city and town in the State, first because it is unqualifiedly the best furniture made; second, because it is sold at such reasonable rates. The people of Berkeley and adjoining towns who need furniture, carpets, oil cloths, window shades, lace curtains, portiers, cornices or mats should not fail to visit the stores of Mr. E. Hcok, 414-418 Eleventh street and 415-419 Twelfth street, near Broadway, Oakland.

Only seven insurance men out of the hundred or so in Oakland were present at night at the meeting called to form a combine to put up rates. The meeting was a frost, and no attempt whatever was made to organize it.

ANENT THE LATE GAME.

And now the hurly-burly's done,
The football game's not lost or won;
And Berkeley brings no trophy home,
And Stanford nurses no cut comb.
All honor to the Blue and Gold,
May Berkeley soon the trophy hold;
And honor too, the Stanford men;
They're worthy of our steel, and when
We meet them on the field next year,
We'll show them U. C. knows no fear,
But win or lose she still is game,
And values honor more than fame.
Her men are cast in heroes mold,
So give three cheers for Blue and Gold.

It is Said

That an extra large cattle train passed through West Berkeley today with animals for the San Francisco market.

That there is plenty of good mussels and fat clams on the beach at West Berkeley. Also you can catch grisle by fishing for them off of the Universlty wharf.

That the recent rain will lower the price of butter, which at the present time can only be used on a millionaire's table.

That neither of the football teams is satisfied with the result of the game Thursday.

That on Monday next Congress will meet and then we shall be the practically "new nation."

That a larger portion of the community feasted on turkey Thursday than has been customary for years back. Times are improving, and that kind of game is more plenty.

That when Mt. Tamalpais is covered with a cloud it is a sure sign that it will soon rain in Alameda county.

That our Congressmen will have to be good tacticians to get their share of offices which it is in the power of the new Congress to bestow.

The ubiguitous Crowley is now reported to be near Firebaugh having crossed the San Jaiquin river just above that place. The news has the appearance of reliability and the fellow may be captured by the deputy sheriffs who have gone in pursuit of him.

A fake telegram is going the rounds stating that it is the purpose of Gen. Antonio Ezeta, to seize a Pacific Mail Steamer, make a cruiser of her and then endeavor to capture San Salvador. Late advices received at West Berkeley, from the General tells a far different story.

In Holiday Attire.

Mr. C. Demetrak in speaking of the approaching holidays says, "Holidays are coming and we are preparing for them. Our store during the holidays will be the cream of all. We are going to sell you good goods and cheap. We not only talk but mean business.

In our grocery store we have received a new stock of fresh goods; canned goods, extracts and spices. Our teas and coffee cannot be beat either for quality or prices, anywhere. Our hams and bacon are as sweet as sugar and cheaper than elsewhere. Now in butter and eggs we will have a large supply. Our butter has been selected from the best creameries and our eggs are being daily received from Berkeley and San Pablo. Furthermore we guarantee them. Our raisins are the best grown at Fresno. We have all kinds of this year's growth that are equalled by none. We have enough to supply everybody in Berkeley. The sales upon fruit and produce have proved that we are the largest dealers in the town. Our stock is of the largest kind kept in accordance with the season. We have received a lot of lemons, limes and oranges of very good quality for this time of year, also apples, pears, grapes, and bananas. Berries are somewhat short now but anybody who desires them will be supplied if they give orders in advance

Our vegetable department will be selected with the greatest care and always fresh. Our lettuce and celery are crisp and delicate, also beans, peas, lima bean sprouts are fine and a plenty of them.

There is now on hand 800 sacks of the best potatoes raised in the State of Washington which we will sell to you for one dollar per sack and satisfaction warranted. A little garlic, good for the breath after eating turkey can be had with the other things.

In squashes we have four tons of the finest for pies and enough to supply the whole town. Our fish market will not be so well supplied but parties desiring can have anything they want by giving their orders before wanting. Fresh oysters, crabs and shrimps will hereafter always be on hand. We keep candies in small quantities but good, fresh and cheap. Cigars and tobacco of all kinds in quantities to suit.

LOOK OUT 650 TURKEYS. We have a contract for the holidays, either alive or dressed, both gobblers and hens of extra good quality will be sold at going rates. You don't have to go out of town for them. Give your orders early so we can select the best for you.

CRANBERRIES, CRANBERRIES, Plenty in our place, also chickens and game. After all don't forget we have the finest cider ever made on the Pacific Coast. We have sold during the past month about 400 gallons at retail. That is not so very much but a good deal for the town. Those who bought once, buy again and again. Our stores are at the corner of University and Shattuck Avenues.

C. DEMETRAK,
Successor to the D & D Company.

FALLS FROM A MOVING STREET CAR

And Has His Shoulder Dislocated —Ishmael Has a Few Remarks to Make.

Outwits the Railroad.

Mayor Davie and a force of men captured a portion of the water front at midnight claimed by the Southern Pacific Company. The raid on the water front was made in such a secret manner that only those interested in the act knew about it until it occurred. Just at midnight the Mayor and his men came out from cover and proceeded to the foot of Harrison street. The Mayor acted as general of the forces, and ordered the men to tear down the sheds and obstructions on the line of Harrison street. The work of demolishing the timbers in the way commenced at once, the Mayor giving personal directions as to how the raid should be made.

The company had fenced in Harrison street during the stormy times of two years ago, and claimed the land as a part of the water front. Davie now declares that Harrison street shall be a public highway to the water front. By virtue of his office as Mayor and as a citizen, he claims the right to open the street.

As soon as the obstructions were torn away the Mayor ordered a force of men to work to fill in the street to the water line. They will be at work all night and by daylight Harrison street will be a public highway to the water front. The reason that the Mayor was so secret about the proceedings was because he feared the Southern Pacific Company, by commencing mandamus proceedings would outwit him before he got to work.

"I have opened Harrison street for the benefit of the people," said the Mayor. "It shall remain open as long as I am the chief executive of this city. I think I have outwitted the railroad this time. By daylight the street will be open to the public. It is a public street and the railroad has no right to fence it in. I am on the ground to see that the people's rights shall be respected. No mandamus proceedings for me. In the morning the railroad people shall see how I have opened a street and dedicated it to the people."

District Attorney Snook has filed a notice of appeal to the Supreme Court from Judge Ellsworth's decision sustaining Assessor Dalton's assessment. Involved in the suit are questions relating to the validity of acts attempted by the State Board of Equalization. The extension of time to various county Boards of Equalizations by the State board were declared illegal by Judge Ellsworth, and now the District Attorney, on behalf of Auditor Myron Whidden, is taking an appeal. Whidden is the man whom Grand Juror E. G. Buswell defined on the witness stand as one he believed to be a ringster. It was upon the complaint of Buswell as a taxpayer that suit was commenced to restrain the Board of Supervisors and Auditor from reducing the Dalton assessments of corporation property.

Frank S. Butterworth, the University football coach, left yesterday evening on the overland for the East. He has been so popular with the players and the college students that there is much talk of securing him next year, and it is understood that he is not altogether averse to making another trip to California for the purpose of coaching the Berkeley team. Heretofore it has been the custom for the University team to elect a captain for the following year on the night of the annual football game, but at the meeting Thursday night no election was held. It is understood that both Sherman, the present captain, and Ransome, the Varsity full-back, were placed in nomination, but that the former expressed his intention of withdrawing his name. On account of Ransome's brilliant work Thanksgiving day, it is expected that he will be the man chosen for the position.

Stray Notes.

(BY ISMAEL.)

The people of the Salvation Army dedicated their new "hall" in East Berkeley on Tuesday evening last, with much pomp and ceremony, also considerable noise with a little music. One white-capped, leather-lunged leader of the band was vociferously telling the audience of the life he used to lead before finding salvation, and comparing it with the life he is leading now. He also gave the information that he had, before becoming converted by the doctrines of the Salvation Army, on several occasions fallen into the hands of the police. As he did not volunteer the information as to why he had fallen into their kindly keeping, it is safe to infer from his behavior on the evening in question, that at different times he has been guilty of disturbing the public peace.

I have always believed from what has been told me by preachers of the various denominations, that, when the kindly light of salvation is diffused through the human soul, it has a calming and quieting effect upon the soul thus illumined. If the gentlemen in question was proportionately as uproarious when full of whisky as he is now, when, to quote his own words, "he is full of salvation," he must have been, to use a Western plagarism, a "holy terror," and well deserving of the attentions he claims the police bestowed upon him.

Emile Zola has refused to sign the petition now being circulated asking for the release of Oscar Wilde. Good! Emile Zola may further ingratiate himself into the approbation of the reading public by refraining from writing more such books of the moral calibre of "Human Brutes," etc., and may raise himself from Wilde's level by helping to supress those he has already written.

Mr. Plumb, a promising business man of Redwood City, while star gazing in front of Fred Kouke's cafe on Market street stepped backward and fell through an open trap. It is believed that Mr. Plumb saw several more stars than he bargained for and has now returned to his home for repairs. Moral. When star gazing on Market street where traps in the sidewalk are frequently open, do not walk backwards or you may in all probability meet with a similar mishap and fall "Plumb" as the gentlemen from Redwood city did, landing with more force than comfort.

Messrs. Bierce and McEwen are still engaged in their elaborate and awe-inspiring war of words to the immense amusement of an admiring and open-mouthed populace, who stand in wonder that such an assortment of jaw-breaking epithets of abuse can be bandied without some one being hurt. The admiring populace need have no fear if they bear in mind the old adage that "Trumpeters never fight."

Truly, this battle of abuse between these two literary bigwigs reminds me of an ancient print which, cobwebfrilled and smoke begrimed, I saw once hanging on the wall of a log hut in Arkansas. The picture represented two farmers tugging, one at the head, the other at the tail, for the possession of a remarkably lean cow, not seeing in their intense zeal for the establishment of their respective claims that a third man, in the person of a lawyer, was making the most of his opportunity in extracting the milk from the cow in dispute. The picture was called "The Lawsuit," and is an apt illustration of the squabbling between Bierce and McEwen. These letter garblers have become possessed of a little fame, and being desirous of obtaining a little more have waylaid the slippery Goddess and laid rude hands on her, as evinced by their blackguardly abuse of each other in the columns of their respective papers. While they are disputing as to who has the best claim to her possession, the lawyer, in the shape of the aforesaid admiring populace, is extracting what mirth he may from the amusing situation of the two interesting (non) combatants.

REQUIRED TO READ.

PREPARING A NEW GREAT COUNTY REGISTER.

County Clerk Jordan Proposes to Enforce the Amendment to the Constitution.

During the past week several foreigners have been refused registration by County Clerk Jordan because they could neither read nor write, and the discovery has been made that such citizens are going to San Francisco and returning after a certain period with transfer certificates, so that they can get on the Alameda County Great Register.

Many of these applicants have been naturalized in the East, and have voted for twenty years, and cannot understand why they should be refused registration for such a simple thing as ignorance of reading and writing.

A native of Austria was asked by Jordan a few days ago who was President of this country, and he looked as blank as a cheese, and succeeded in conveying the impression that he did not know. He did not say as much, because his knowledge of the language would not permit him, but he was not registered and will not be till he comes up to the educational requirements.

"These applications are very common," said Clerk Jordan, "and it convinces me that there are a great number of people on the Great Register that have no right to be there. I have positive information that there is a gang of men here who will attempt to get on the next Great Register of Alameda county who are not entitled to because of their inability to read and write. Some of them have been refused naturalization in this county.

"In San Francisco they seem to meet with better luck, for many come back with their naturalization papers and ask to be registered. They are put through tne test. If they cannot read any portion of the constitution they are sent away."

One peculiar case is on record showing how much easier it is to be naturalized in San Francisco than in Oakland. Two brothers named Corbett, living in West Berkeley, applied to Judge Ellsworth for naturalization and were refused on the ground of ignorance. On their way up Broadway, a politician named Billy Macdonald coached them in the constitution, and at 3 o'clock the same afternoon they were back in the County Clerk's office to be registered. They had gone to San Francisco and were naturalized by Judge Sanderson the same day Judge Ellsworth refused them. They were registered, as they could both read and write, and therefore the clerk had no option in the matter, although he knew of their experience with the Alameda county judge.

It has been customary in the past for ward workers to apply to the County Clerk for blocks of signed blank certificates, which would be filled in afterward to suit. The workers would use these certificates at the primaries, would destroy them as soon as they had voted, and there would be no possibility of conviction.

The next Great Register will not be printed until after the primaries are held, and everybody will have to vote on certificates. No blanks will be issued, however, and no one will get a certificate who does not appear personally and take the oath. There is some doubt as to whether there will not be many disfranchisements in this county before the next election. There are hundreds of names on the old register of people who cannot comply with the educational clause, and when they apply for new registration they may be refused.—Alameda Argus.

The way in which space is being taken for the Oakland Exposition which opens on December 16th is something remarkable, and it has caused the executive committee to erect a large annex to the tabernacle and the space in this is going at a rapid rate. If there are any of the manufacturers in Berkeley who have not yet secured space, they had better do so at once if they want to exhibit.

NOT THE REAL CAUSE.

The people of Vallejo have now got the cheapest transportation rates in California and hundreds of people are visiting that enterprising little town, and each and all of them are spending a few dollars there and this amounts to a good deal to the hotels, saloons, lodging houses and restaurants, as from them it finds its way into the hands of other trades and businesses. The newspapers and business men of the town are not happy, however, for they claim that the people of Vallejo leave for San Francisco in the morning and return home in the evening laden with groceries, meats and drygoods, all of which is detrimental to the home merchants.

It is possible that this is the case, but there must be a cause for it. In the first place people will always go where they can get the best goods for the least money, and if they can get the goods at low prices in Vallejo they will not go to San Francisco. It is quite a long ride from Vallejo to San Francisco, and it consumes a whole day and is very tiresome, and it is only the inducements that are offered by San Francisco merchants that will cause Vallejo people to go to San Francisco for goods, more than once or twice. If the same inducements are offered at home the Vallejo people would gladly purchase at home.

Let the Vallejo merchants, whose expenses are not one-quarter what the San Francisco merchants have to pay, put their prices down to the same figure as the San Francisco merchants, and people will not leave Vallejo, but the people from adjacent towns would come to Vallejo to make their purchases. It is not the cheap rates that [illegible] our neighbor, but the lack of advertising in the home paper, and the lack of first class goods and the cheap prices.

THE TURKISH MASSACRES.

Within the past week over 10,000 people have been killed and massacred in Turkey. All of this blood letting has been done by order of the Palace government and the prime object is to exterminate Christians. The Sultan is being kept in a state of intoxication all the time by the priests and chamberlains of the Palace government, and is being told by them that if he permits the extra guard ships to pass up the Dardanelles it will lower his dignity as Sultan and he takes their advice and seems to revel in the reports that come to him of the killing of Christians.

It is time now that the civilized nations took a hand in this matter and to see that it is stopped at once. If not let them blow the Sultan and his empire to Hades. The time has passed when one nation can stand by and countenance such wanton destruction of human life as has been going on in Turkey and Armenia for the past month.

Some months ago Fred Adams, a wealthy young man of Oakland, attended a reception at the home of Senator Perkins. There he was introduced to a young lady named Isabelle Potter, and he fell violently in love with her, and in due time persuaded her to marry him, going to Martinez to have the ceremony performed. Upon their return from Martinez they went to San Francisco, where they took rooms and for one week quietly enjoyed their honeymoon. They then returned to Oakland and he returned to his home and she to the home of the friend whom she had been stopping with, keeping the secret of her marriage a secret at his request. He finally told a friend that he was married and the story became public. His brother then removed him from any communication with his wife and told her that his brother was not of age consequently his marriage was void. It was shown that Adams had sworn before the Clerk of Contra Costa county that he was 21 years of age and that the marriage was legally contracted. The elder brother then had himself appointed guardian of the youthful husband, and as guardian has commenced suit to annul his marriage with Miss Potter, and at the same time hints that she is a bigimist and an adventuress. We hope that tne case will speedily come to trial, and if the marriage should be annulled, that young Adams be arrested for perjury. As there is no doubt whatever as to his having sworn to the marriage certificate he has committed perjury and he should be convicted and sent to prison for it. The people are getting rather tired of this old Adam business. "I couldn't help it, she made me do it." If young Adams had not had a passion or love for Miss Potter he would not have married her, for he was old enough to know better, and he should now be compelled to live with her and support her, no matter whether it is agreeable to his family or not. If there was a little more attention paid to the laws of divorce instead of to other matters, the morals of this country would be much better and there would be less crime and fewer ruined young women scattered over our country. These mothers' mass meetings that are being held throughout the country should set about having laws made so that it would be impossible to have divorces granted. If a man or woman marries and cannot agree let them separate but do not allow them a divorce, so that they can ruin the lives of other people. There are cases where a divorce is the correct thing, and when it is just that a man should be released from a woman or a woman from a man, but they are rare. At the present time the divorce courts are a convenience for people who tire of each other, or who marry in haste without finding out anything of the disposition of each other, or of each other's past history.

THEODORE DURRANT while posing as a truthful man, has taken in the Examiner. A short time ago Theodore thought he would make a little pin money out of his notoriety, so he wrote an article upon himself and offered it for sale to the newspapers. The call and the Examiner took the bait and published his story which fell flat upon the public. Durrant soon came to the front again with a poem, and the Examiner purchased it from him. Now it finds that the old story of a "sucker being born every minute," applies to them, for truthful Theodore had palmed off upon them a poem published in a religious paper, with only a few changes in order to make it fit himself. The name of Durrant is becoming nauseus to the people, whose only desire now that he has been convicted, is to have him executed as soon as possible.

CLOAK DEPARTMENT
The enormous business we are doing in this branch of our store is simply astonishing and far exceeds our most sanguine expectations. There must be something attractive about our wares and prices for everybody that has looked at our garments has most emphatically declared them superior to anything seen in San Francisco at anything like such prices.
Our preparations were made long before the rise in the cloth market and therefore we made our purchases under favorable circumstances by which our customers profit.
For instance, we sell a boucle jacket with large mandolin sleeves and velvet piping at $7.50, a splendid fitting garment. An imported broadcloth double cape braided top and bottom with soutache braid, in black, brown, navy and electric, $5.75 and $7.50, an extraordinary value.
Heavy Covert jackets with velvet collars, $7.00. Plush capes $6.50. Plush capes trimmed with soutache $9.00. Boucle capes trimmed with real Thibet $15.00.
....An Extraordinary Variety of Fine Garments to suit all Tastes.....
Our Customers are Cordially Invited to Inspect our Cloak Department.

"What can she mean?" muttered the puzzled clerk. The child grew impatient.

"A naught of soda," she said sharply. "Why, it ith a funny bottle wif a thquirter to it, and it goeth 'si-z' when you work it."

"Oh! You mean a siphon of soda," exclaimed the clerk.

"Oh! Thiphen? Thiphen? Yeth, thir, it wath thiphen. But thiphens and naught ith the thame, ain't it?"

And the clerk said that ciphers and naughts were the same.—Philadelphia American.

One of the Wonders of Physics.

An experienced mechanic who was asked what he regarded as the most wonderful thing for general utility replied: "The tracking of a car wheel is the most wonderful thing to me in the whole range of science and invention. Here are two rails, up hill and down hill, round the sharp curves and along false tangents, and upon them fly at more than a mile a minute, without jar or jostle, a dozen heavy cars drawn by an engine weighing 60 tons. Passengers realize no danger, yet there is only the little flange of a wheel between them and eternity. An inch and a half of steel turned up on the inner side of the wheel holds up the whole train as securely to the rails as if it were bolted there in grooves."—Albany Express.
